The kind of people who like to calmly sing for a person (and tangle them in a trap (involving a genus of air-breathing fish)).
Added (after having acted as an intermediary in a dispute (about a tiny buffalo)) on top of a previous addition.
Naïvely, a person (with reptilian openings in the skull behind each eye (and limbs)) who buys all the stock from a florist.
Sheltered offshore anchorages (allowing people to convey goods (evils) by sideless cart).
Lacking a supporting structure for carrying a rider (which would deprive the beast (such as a small waterbird) of its freedom).
